

I told the king of Israel there would be no rain in the land.

The king favored me and made me his queen.

I was very sad when I heard Jerusalem's walls were destroyed.

I lived by a brook and ravens brought me food to eat.

I had an uncle named Mordecai.

I prayed and confessed my sins and Israel's sins to God.